“A COUNTY FIRST”

BRUNSWICK COUNTY DEMOCRATS TO HOST ‘COMMUNITY HEROES EXPO’

The Brunswick Democratic Party is pleased to announce its first annual Community Heroes EXPO, an event to promote the work of charitable and advocacy organizations in our area.

“We’re proud of the excellent work charitable and advocacy groups perform every day in Southeastern North Carolina,” said BCDP Chair Shelley Allen. “Their accomplishments deserve our continuing attention, gratitude and support. They are truly community heroes.”

To be held on Saturday, September 23, from 10 a.m. - 3 p.m., the Community Heroes EXPO is a great way to introduce the public to the wide range of services and support our county’s non-profit community provides. BCDP is making its Bolivia headquarters (1420 Old Ocean Hwy, Bolivia, 28422) available to non-profit groups to help them promote their goals and achievements.

Some 25 organizations have agreed to take part in the EXPO, making it one of the largest such gatherings in county history. They’ll have an opportunity to promote their activities, recruit new volunteers from an excellent base of publicly minded citizens, and educate our community about their missions, accomplishments and needs.

“BCDP is offering this opportunity without cost or obligation,” Allen said. “It’s our way of showing our appreciation for the work non-profits are doing on behalf of all Brunswick County residents. We’re looking forward to seeing attendees on September 23.

“And Come hungry,” she added. “Food trucks will be at our EXPO to feed you.”
